

Found object

I don't know what it is,
it has seven leaves, a green stem, and flowers like kazoos.

It was on the beach near the fishing huts and I popped it into my shopping bag.

Back home,
I put it in a pot with earth, gave it water
and a glop of sugar.

Today,
sat with a mug of coffee, admiring the new blooms, I'm overcome by a feeling of joy.
